

Working Together for Safer Communities

AN INVITATION TO JOIN SynRJ ON AN RP JOURNEY

Thank you for your interest and time in following the link to this letter of invitation. As we have mentioned in our posts, this opportunity really does have the potential to change your working and even personal life!

We understand that as an individual the cost involved in both time and money in pursuing a desire to become a trainer in the restorative and relational processes (RP) field can be prohibitive, unattainable and off-putting.

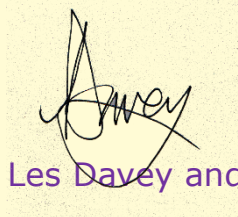

To this end, we want to ease your path by making the following offer to you:

1. A personal invite to a free non-committal online consultation to discuss how we can work together to help you reach your RP goals.
2. An agreed pathway following this free consultation, with a planned progression as a trainer with SynRJ, including further training and development (CPD) opportunities following on from the training outlined at 3 below.
3. Online training equivalent of three days of Face-to-Face training, to equip you with the necessary knowledge and skills to deliver SynRJ's core 1-Day 'Informal Processes: An Introduction' workshop.

The three days (spread out in sessions over a week or so), will be made up as follows:

- 1-Day 'Informal Processes: An Introduction' workshop
 - 2-Day 'Informal Processes: An Introduction' Training of Trainer (ToT) course
4. A bursary giving you 50% off of the normal fees for the training outlined at 3 above.
 5. A free online consultation of up to 2 hours prior to the delivery of your first workshop following your ToT course.
 6. The opportunity to work towards becoming a SynRJ Affiliate, offering RP to an agreed audience, fully supported every step of the way.

So, follow the instructions and links on this website 'Big Reveal' page, complete the online questionnaire and register for your free initial consultation now. We look forward to welcoming you into the RP family!
